UK BLACK PRIDE 2010 GUIDELINES

1. All stall holders and vendors are prohibited from selling alcoholic beverages or bringing glass bottles/containers onto the festival site or its surroundings.
2. All stall holders and vendors are prohibited from selling any memorabilia such as T-shirts, buttons, posters, banners, balloons, etc., with reference to UK Black Pride on the grounds of UKBP without a written agreement with UKBP for the collaborative sale of said merchandise.
3. All monies must be maintained and stored out of public view at all times. UKBP assumes no responsibility, nor is liable or accountable for any lost and/or stolen monies of any Vendor.
4. It is the responsibility of each stall holders or vendors to secure off-site storage facilities.
5. UKBP shall assign stall holders and vendors spaces.
6. Stall holders and vendors are responsible for cleaning the space allotted to them and transporting their debris to the bin(s) provided.
7. No security shall be provided by UKBP for installations left overnight.
8. UKBP, its successors, assignees and all persons acting under its authority are not responsible for inclement weather and its effects. All fees and transactions are final. NO REFUNDS.
9. All non-profit organisations must show proof of non-profit status to the relevant UKBP representative.
10. Stall holders and vendors understand that UKBP has no control over weather, acts of God, acts of terrorism, governmental intervention, or any other cause that may prevent, and or interrupt the festival. Stall holders and vendors shall hold UKBP, its assignees, and all persons acting under its authority, harmless for any losses that could arise because of such event.
11. UKBP reserves the right to revise these guidelines without prior written consent and / or notification. No part of this agreement may be changed in any way or altered without the written, signed permission of UKBP.
